

Where to find HAPPINESS

REV. LU grew up in Xi'an, China, and attended graduate schools at the Univ. of Georgia and Harvard Univ., majoring in Design of Landscape Architecture. Rev. Lu was a professor at UMass-Amherst for many years, and served the Lord as an elder at the Amherst Chinese Christian Church. After a short-term mission trip to Europe through the Chinese Overseas Christian Mission (COCM), he felt a clear vision and calling for mission, especially to meet the needs of Europe.

In July of 2007, he resigned from his professorship and moved to England with his wife, Lin Zhong, and 11 year-old daughter and 8 year-old son, and now serves as a full-time missionary. Rev. Lu is also the Director General of COCM.
